Service to be provided:

_____ Private Cremation Service: a single-body cremation, where the body of one, and only one, companion animal is placed within the retort and cremated during the service. The cremated remains returned to the family are from their companion animal's private cremation service.

_____ Paws of Endearment: a detailed, three-dimensional casting of the animal companion's paw

_____ Other: _____

It is our usual custom to remove a lock or clippings of hair as a keepsake for the family.

Cremation is irreversible. To allow the family time with their decision, under most circumstances, we do not perform the cremation service on the day we receive the body. Will additional time be needed: No _____ Yes _____?

Cremated remains are calcified bone fragments, with a minute amount of trace minerals and occasionally traces of carbon ash residue. We usually process cremated remains into the traditional granular or "ash-like" texture. If you would prefer that the cremains not be processed, please check here: _____.

Are there personal items (such as collars, bedding or food) that you would like Kindred Hearts to donate on your behalf to a local shelter or rescue organizations? No: _____ Yes: _____? Preference: _____.

Are there any special requests or instructions? _____

The fine print.... Payment is due when the service is complete. There is no additional fee to stay with us during the cremation of your companion. However, an attended service will usually need to be the first service of the day and we do start early. There may be additional fees for emergency services, body transports and some of our other services. In the event of severe weather, there may be a delay in service provision.
